

ARKON-CANTON COMPOSITE SQUADRON, GLR-OH-278

Description: ?

Significance: The green cobra signifies the Bell AH-1 Cobra helicopter that sits outside of the Akron-Canton National Guard Armory. The skyline of North Canton rests in the background. The three stars represent the three missions of CAP, cadet program, aerospace education, and emergency services. The three jets racing across the sky represent three former significant pilots. The compass represents navigation. The red cross signifies first aid and safety.

Designer: Brian Bahr, 2002 (?)